

Mission Awareness Event: Model 1 Sample Invite List

This is a sample list of individuals and groups to consider inviting, with a focus on key areas of involvement:

1. Friends who Support the Mission

- Community Leaders: People who have influence and can help amplify the mission in their own networks.
- Volunteers and Advocates: Friends who actively participate in causes and can help spread the word and mobilize others.

2. Friends who Work with Children or Youth

- Teachers and Educators: Individuals who work in schools and can identify families in need
- Youth Coaches: People who guide and support young individuals through sports or extracurricular activities.
- Social Workers or Counselors: Professionals involved in child welfare or mental health, who might align with the mission's values.

3. Professional Friends with Expertise

- Healthcare Workers: Doctors, nurses, or mental health professionals
- Nonprofit Professionals: Those who work in the nonprofit sector, especially those with experience in community-building, outreach, or advocacy.
- Marketing or Event Planning Experts: Individuals who can help promote the mission or advise on organizing future events.

4. Family and Friends with a Personal Connection

- Parents and Caregivers: People involved in raising or developing youth
- Local Business Owners: Entrepreneurs who may want to invest in community-driven initiatives or provide support through in-kind donations.
- Neighbors and Local Residents: People living in the same community who are interested in getting involved or learning more.
